

CAR INJURIES ARE FATAL

Harold Birdsong Was in Crash Sunday Night.

Kansas City, Kansas, registered its eighth traffic fatality of the year with the death Sunday night at Providence hospital of Harold Lee Birdsong, 25, of 1946 North Twenty-seventh street.

Birdsong was in a car driven by Ferl C. Hutsler, which struck a tree Friday morning at Forty-second street and Victory drive, Kansas City, Kansas. He was an employee of the International Paper company.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Birdsong of the home; a brother, Donald H. Birdsong, 6218 North Michigan, Clay County, and a sister, Mrs. Earline Rust, 2564 Junction road, Wyandotte County.

At this time last year there had been 11 traffic deaths in the city. The total last year was 12.